GENERAL

ARTICLE 101

This organization shall be known as Local 583 Amalgamated Transit Union.

ARTICLE 102
OBJECTIVES

The object of these By-laws is to lay down rules by which business of the Local may be conducted in a strictly legal manner.

To secure and defend our rights and seniority, safe-guard our interest as workers, create an authority whose seal shall constitute a certificate of character, intelligence and skill.

To secure meaningful employment and adequate pay for our work; and by all legal means to elevate our moral, intellectual and social condition.

To encourage the formation and improvements of sick, accident, old age and death benefits funds.

To encourage the principle and practice of conciliation and arbitration in settlement of all difficulties between labour and management; to establish order, insure peace and harmony, promote the general cause of humanity and brotherly ways, and to secure the blessings of friendship, equality and truth.

To abide and support all Sections of the “Constitution and General Laws” of our International Union, and endeavour to obtain for ourselves the fulfilment of all the declarations set forth in the preamble of the “Constitution and General Laws” of this Union and in these Bylaws.

ARTICLE 103 MEMBERSHIP

Qualifications for membership in this Local shall be in compliance with the governing sections of the International Constitution and General Laws.

The Initiation Fee for new members shall be Twenty Dollars ($20.00) payable by payroll deduction.

All new employees applying for membership in the Local must do so by signing the regular membership application and initiation form. All non signed and/or Members shall pay the same dues as is applicable to regular members.

A member attending fifty percent (50%) of all meetings held within their respective bargaining unit, commencing with the January Union meeting each year, will be refunded a cheque in the amount of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) by year end. To receive credit for any meeting, the member must attend for a minimum of 30 minutes or the entire meeting, whichever is less. There will be no excuse accepted for non-attendance excepting long-term illness, where a member is confined to home or hospital or if the absence is a result of his or her regular scheduled shift. In this case, credit for these meetings must be applied for within 10 days of the meeting. Any member that cannot attend a meeting as a result of performing Union duties may receive credit for that meeting on approval of the Executive Board.

It shall be the responsibility of the member leaving the Bargaining Unit to cease their membership and inform the Local Union Office. All dues premiums shall be applicable until date of notification.

Furloughed members may retain membership in the L.U. for one (1) year from the last day of the month of layoff and shall retain all the rights of L.U. membership so long as they remain members in good standing. Thereafter they shall have the right to become Members at Large as per the constitution. As Members at Large, they will have no voice or vote on any matters affecting the L.U. or I.U. including election of officers and labour contract or pension matters.

Members retiring from service and desiring to retain their membership in this Union shall have the right to do so providing they do not enter into employment that is detrimental to the interests of the Union. Such members will then be entitled to the following rights and benefits. They shall have a voice but no vote on any matters affecting the Local or Union except that they shall be permitted to vote at the election of Officers and delegates to conventions.

ARTICLE 104

Communications

Grievances

Bills

Executive Board Report

Report of Officers

Report of Standing and Special Committees

Unfinished Business

New Business

Welfare of the Local

Nominations of Officers

Installation of Officers

Receipts and Expenditures

Adjournment

Any member who wishes to speak will rise and address the Chair and will confine themselves to the question before the house and avoid personalities.

No motions shall be in order to amend the minutes, unless some error of fact is contained therein.

When a question is before the Local, no motion shall be received except the following, which takes precedence in the order named: To Adjourn; To Lay on Table; For Previous Question; To Postpone; To Amend.

The following privilege questions are not debatable: To Adjourn; To Lay on Table; To Reconsider; For previous question.

All questions of order arising after a motion is made are in order except: When a person is speaking; When a vote is being taken; When a motion to adjourn has been defeated.

No motion or proposition on a subject other than that under discussion will be admitted under the colour of an amendment.

When a motion has been made and seconded and put by the chair, it can only be withdrawn with the consent of the maker and seconded.

When a motion has been carried, any member voting with the majority may move for reconsideration thereof, but no discussion of the main question shall be allowed.

When the reading of any matter is called and the same is objected to by any member, it shall be determined by a majority vote of the members present.

No person shall speak more than once on the subject until all members desiring the floor have been heard, and not more than twice without the consent of the Assembly.

The President shall be privileged to debate on all subjects by calling the Executive Vice-President to the chair, or any other member.

All communications shall be filed without vote unless other action be ordered.

A majority vote shall decide all questions, except as otherwise provided for in the Constitution and General Laws and these By-Laws.

No religious matter shall be discussed upon any pretext whatsoever.

Any matters and disputes not covered by the By-laws shall be decided by the Robert's Rules of Order, which is the parliamentary guide for the Union.

No collections, subscriptions, or soliciting shall be allowed amongst members on behalf of Local 583.

All members in good standing, shall be entitled to a General Election Ballot or any other Ballot, providing they have supplied the Local Headquarters with their correct address; the Financial Secretary-Treasurer shall, in turn notify the General Office and any subsequent change they make therein. However, where a ballot is taken in regular or special meetings, all members present, in good standing, shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE 111 NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

As per Article 14.4 and 14.7 of the International Constitution and General Laws, the Financial Secretary/Treasurer shall be the Chief Returning Officer.

Nominations of Officers shall take place every three (3) years at the Regular Chartered meeting in November and only members of Amalgamated Transit Union may attend.

Job Stewards will be appointed when necessary. Job Stewards and Committee members will be appointed by the incoming Executive Board.

The Officers will, by bulletin, notify the membership of a date when nominations will be received. Nominations shall be made from the floor at the Charter Union meeting in November.

Elections for the positions shall take place the week prior to the Regular Union meeting in December.

A member must have complied with the International Constitution and Local By-Laws in order to be eligible for any of the above offices, and must satisfy the Local that they will be able to fulfil the duties of the office to which they are nominated.

Any elected Representative unable to occupy their regular workplace position in the work area from which they were elected shall have an alternate appointed until their return.

The Executive Board will appoint an Alternate until the successful candidate can return. The appointed Alternate will be chosen from that work area.

To be eligible to run for office the member must be in good standing for two (2) years the day preceding nomination and must have attended at least six (6) Regular Union Meetings each year during the twenty-four (24) months prior to, but including the nomination meeting.

Nominations and elections shall be conducted in compliance with the Governing Sections of the Constitution and General Laws and the Local By-laws.

No Officer of Local 583 shall hold office in any organization that is in conflict with the Constitution and General Laws and the Local By-laws of the Union.

The Executive shall determine the eligibility of nominees.

Sufficient photographs of candidates shall be supplied for posting on all bulletin boards and mail out ballots.

The Presiding Officer with the approval of the meeting, shall appoint a sufficient number of Scrutineers to see that the election is fairly conducted.

Additional Scrutineers may be appointed as required.

Candidates or appointees of the candidates desiring to be present when ballots are counted shall be privileged to do so.

Candidates for election will not be permitted access to Local Union membership lists for the purpose of electioneering.

ARTICLE 112 REFERENDUM VOTE

Matters of importance, may by majority vote of the membership at both morning and evening Union meetings be referred to a Referendum Vote of the entire Local.

An advance poll will be available during the week of the Referendum Vote (i.e. Monday to the day preceding the referendum) at the Union Office from 05:00 a.m. to 17:00 p.m.

ARTICLE 113 BY-LAW AMENDMENTS

In order to amend, rescind, alter or adopt new By-laws, the proposed changes must be read at two Charter meetings and posted on all notice boards prior to such meetings. There shall be no discussion on the first reading on the proposed changes but full discussion shall take place at the second meeting and a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the meeting shall be required to amend, rescind, alter or adopt new By-laws.

Changes in these By-laws shall only be entertained at regular meetings held in September or March except those recommended by the Executive Board which shall be entertained at any regular meeting subject to the above conditions.

Proposed By-Law changes from the floor must be submitted in writing no less than 20 calendar days in advance of the September or March Regular Membership meeting to allow for proper posting as per Article 113 of the Local By-Laws. The signature of the member proposing the changes must be on the original submission.

All changes in these By-laws shall be subject to approval of the International Office as required by the Constitution and General Laws.

ARTICLE 114
SOCIAL, WELFARE AND DEFENSE FUND

WELFARE FUND

From the regular dues of each active member, one dollar ($1.00) per month shall be transferred to the Welfare Fund and this amount shall be used for the purpose of helping sick members and providing aid for the needy members. This Welfare Fund shall be administered by the Executive Board subject to the approval of the membership.

This fund shall be accounted for separately and shall be included in the regular financial reports and local audits.

Donations to needy members or organizations will follow proper investigation by the Table Officers and recommendations to the Executive Board with approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the membership voting in favour at a regular meeting.

The fund shall provide for a scholarship or scholarships to be awarded to dependents of members. The executive Board will make a recommendation on the design of the scholarship by March of each year for membership approval.
